

Louisville, Ky.
Lines

Perse = E. McCARTHY

NAMES in the NEWS

Comparing Notes

Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan of British Guiana says he won't let socialism interfere with the liberties of his people. Jagan, a Marxist, said in New York. "I can't say fully there is freedom in Russia the way we understand it in the West." ... Welfare Secretary Abraham Ribicoff said in New York that U. S. welfare programs are better than Russia's but Americans tend to apologize for them.

The Gathering Storm

Senator William Proxmire (D.-Wis.) said in Cleveland that the U. S. promise to keep Berlin-access routes open "has become a symbol to all the people of the free world." ... New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller outlined a fallout-shelter incentive plan at Albany but Senator Thomas Dodd (D., Conn.) said in Washington that he doesn't want to duck in case of war; he wants to fight. ... U. S. Ambassador Edwin Reischauer placed a wreath at the Hiroshima memorial on a visit there to dedicate a hospital.

Purely Personal

Singer Lu Ann Simms, 30, was married in New York to Rochester liquor salesman Casper Stolt, 32. ... Detroit schoolteacher Barbara Hoffa, only daughter of Teamsters Union president James Hoffa, marries Robert Crancer, 24, of St. Louis in Detroit this weekend. Crancer's father is the president of the Valley Steel Company. ... Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges advised young Americans to go as deeply into debt as they can to invest capital in something. He spoke in Washington.

Barbara Hoffa

Honors List

Achievement awards of the University of Southern California journalism alumni go this year to Ralph McGill, Atlanta Constitution publisher; Henry R. Luce, editor-in-chief of Time Inc.; and CBS-TV newsmen Walter Cronkite. ... Astronaut Alan Shepard, former disarmament adviser John J. McCloy, and Christian Science Monitor editor Erwin Canham will receive the service medals of the Theodore Roosevelt Association October 27.

Religion

Bishop Fred Pierce Carson, head of World Methodist Council, left Philadelphia to start a world tour. ... Richard Cardinal Cushing

Associated Press Wirephoto

"I didn't want him to have a child bride," quipped newlywed Mrs. Upton Sinclair, 79, as she posed with the bridegroom, 83, at Claremont, Calif. The Pulitzer Prize-winning novelist and bride, the former Mrs. Mary Hard Willis, will live at Monrovia, Calif.

ing proposed in Boston that a Catholic corps of lay teachers be formed to fight Communism. ... About 2,000 Mormons took part in the dedication of an information bureau at the Sharon, Vt., birthplace of Joseph Smith, founder of their church.

Talking Points

Representative Kenneth Roberts (D., Ala.) said in Chicago that the Federal Government may have to establish minimum automobile-safety standards unless the states get on the job. ... F. B. I. director J. Edgar Hoover said the activities of Castro's groups in the United States—some well-organized and Red-led—has added to his security duties. ... Senator Eugene McCarthy (D. Minn.) said in Washington he is not yet sure John A. McCone is qualified to head the Central Intelligence Agency.